OLD BUSINESS

Painting Pictures of Books Near the Sorting Room (chair rail status) – Wendi Zwaduk

Wendi reported that there will be no chair rail. Wendi made a mock up drawing of what a 28' x 7' color painting would look like on the wall near the sorting room. The drawing would include the old and new Keystone Library and the original churches in the Lagrange Village. Wendi passed around the drawing at the meeting. The Friends were impressed and delighted with the drawing, and asked Wendi to move forward with the painting.

Feedback on Shred Day/Donation Day at Keystone Library Branch - Saturday, August 5, 2023

There was a poor turn out for Shred/Donation Day. Only 4 vehicles came to the event over the three-hour period (1 car between 9 and 10; 1 car between 10 and 11; and 2 cars between 11 and 12). There were 8 volunteer workers. The Friends took the donated books to the sorting room after the event. We needed more publicity for this event.

Little Library – Mary Karleskint

Mary Karleskint has been taking care of the Little Library while Patti Baker is recovering. Mary mentioned that, during later months in the summer, residents were filling up the Little Library with books to a point that she was unable to organize it in the town square. Wendi and Mary decided to leave the Little Library as it is now and to not add or take away books. They would like to have the Little Library taken down and have it repainted by the Friends. Wendi mentioned that the Friends could get some acrylic paint from the hardware store in town. The Little Library would need to be moved to the sorting room to be painted. The Friends suggested taking the Little Library down in the winter season when the residents are not using it as much.

Tree Lighting – Wendi Zwaduk

Wendi pointed out that the Friends need to start planning for the Tree Lighting Ceremony to be held on Thursday, November 30, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. at the Keystone Library. We need a Friend to put the lights on the tree outside. Debby Krejsa announced that there will be cookies, hot chocolate, and a little more activities than last year.

Christmas in the Village – Wendi Zwaduk

Christmas in Lagrange Village is schedule for the first Sunday in December at the Village Building. Wendi suggested the idea of the Friends giving out children's books and cookies to the children at the event. The Friends could also put out membership applications.
